LB 556

PRESIDENT: All provisions of law relative to procedure having been complied with, the question is shall the bill pass? Senator Duis, do you have a question? All those in favor vote aye. All those opposed vote no. Once again the Chair would ask if you have all voted. Clerk will record.

CLERK: Vote read. 41 ayes, no nays, 8 not voting.

PRESIDENT: Very good. The bill is passed. Senator Duis, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR DUIS: Mr. President, had I been present, I would have voted yes on LB--LR 23. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. So Senator Duis is voting yes on LR 23. Before we move to the next final reading, I, I think this is something very special that the group might like to know. While we were reading a while ago, our special representative was dispatched to the North Balcony and Senator Marvel discovered up there that Lynn Holtson, the little girl up there that's the pink (?) with the long bunches, is from Korea and she's to be naturalized today and the whole class is going to be present at that ceremony and I think we ought to give her a hand as a prospective new citizen. Lynn, I know that I speak for the entire body when I say that we're going to be mighty proud to have you be a citizen of the United State of America. We're pleased to have you here today also as a visitor. Airight, carry on, final reading of LB 558.

CLERK: Reads bill.
